Look Forward to a Smart, Green and Inclusive space at Punggol Point

The new Punggol Digital District (PDD) and Punggol Point District is taking shape in your backyard! PDD is a smart district that will transform the way we work, live, learn and play. Integrated with the new Singapore Institute of Technology (SIT) campus and community facilities, PDD will be an exciting place for collaboration and innovation, creating around 28,000 new jobs.

You will be able to enjoy new recreational spaces like the 1.3km heritage trail which links Punggol Waterway Park to Punggol Point waterfront. A new MRT station, bus interchange, hawker centre, community club, childcare facilities, waterfront retail and dining options will also be located within the district for your greater convenience!

To facilitate construction works for PDD and Punggol Point District, there will be road diversions in the area. Please refer to the map overleaf for more information.
